

I am a 20 year United flight attendant and see the cellular telephone use in flight as a step back to the nightmares we endured when passengers were allowed to smoke. Please don't approve something else that will allow passengers to aggravate each other!